WORSHIP AT ST. JOHN'S

Following the lifting of most remaining Lockdown restrictions, on 20th July, the PC Standing Committee have agreed to the following changes to worship at St. John's for the immediate future:

- Although no longer legally required, we request that, for the time being due to Covid-19 infection rates remaining high, that the congregation do continue to wear masks in Church, maintain social distancing and sanitise their hands.
- The choir has resumed singing in Church during the main Sunday service. The congregation are invited to join in the singing of hymns but are requested to do so wearing their masks.
- Holy Communion will continue in one kind only for the time being and will be administered from the area in front of the chancel step (as we have been doing during lockdown).
- The Peace will continue for the time being to be observed discreetly and following social distancing protocols.
- The congregation are asked to observe social distancing as far as possible and the Lady Chapel area will be set aside as a mandatory social distancing area for those who feel they need to socially distance themselves from others. Please respect this.

FOCUS ON... WHO IS JESUS FOR US?

In Chapter 9 of Saint Mark's Gospel, Jesus asks his disciples who people are saying that he is. The crowds do realise that here is someone important – someone from God – but the best that they can do is assume that he is somehow a reincarnated John the Baptist, or Elijah, or a prophet. Jesus asks the disciples who they say he is, and Peter makes his famous declaration, "You are the Messiah." It feels as if Peter has just realised this truth before his mind has even processed what it means. Jesus goes on to teach his followers about the death that he must suffer, and his resurrection after three days. When Peter rebukes him, he begins to talk about the potential consequences of following him – self-denial, losing one's life by setting out to save it, but saving it by losing it. What? It sounds very confusing – and frightening – and probably not at all what Peter and the other disciples had supposed that they had signed up for. Jesus goes on to explain what this Messiahship means, for himself and for his followers. It is not an easy path and often counterintuitive. The Messiah, the chosen one of God, will lose his life? For Peter and the other people of First Century Judaea, that simply did not fit with the expectation of Messiahship at that time. It is indeed hard to interpret this very challenging idea of losing one's life; and to hear the strange and paradoxical conclusion that in losing it, one saves it. But such a radical change of perspective does, in fact, enable us to recognise who it is we really are. We no longer have to struggle with seeking to establish our own identity, or indeed the identity of other people. Like Peter, our own confession that Jesus is indeed the Messiah, the Saviour of the World, allows the truth about ourselves and God's kingdom to become, suddenly, crystal clear. We can turn from the small considerations and work for the greatest of goals, safe in the knowledge of who it is we ourselves really are, children of the living God. And thus we are able to be true to ourselves and true to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Canon Tony Bundock
