Recent UK Government Guidance has been reviewed and at this stage few changes are going to be required for in-church worship at St. John's. These will remain in place for the immediate future:

- Wearing masks in church, apart from for the choir when singing and for those leading worship is now mandatory. Also, during actual receipt of Holy Communion. The congregation are requested to wear masks in Church, maintain social distancing and sanitise their hands.
- Singing of hymns in Church during the sung services will continue. The congregation can continue to join in the singing of hymns, but to do so wearing their masks.
- Holy Communion will continue in one kind only for the time being and will be administered from the area in front of the chancel step.
- The Peace will continue for the time being to be observed discreetly and following social distancing protocols.

FOCUS ON..... THE BAPTISM OF JESUS

The Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke all tell of how John the Baptist proclaimed Baptism for the forgiveness of sins; and told the crowds that he would be followed by someone more powerful than him. The Gospel writers also tell of how, at his Baptism by John, God's Spirit descended on Jesus in the form of a dove, with the affirmation that Jesus is indeed God's beloved Son. In Luke's account, however, there are two important elements not included in Matthew or Mark. The first is John's proclamation that the "one who is more powerful" will bring judgement, will separate the wheat from the chaff. The longed-for Messiah was expected to come as judge as well as saviour. John's baptism of repentance was indeed good news in the face of imminent judgement. Saint Luke also wants us to see Jesus as a man of prayer. Elsewhere in his Gospel he writes about Jesus praying at important moments in his life and ministry; before calling his twelve disciples, before asking them who they believe he is, before teaching them how to pray, and during his last days in Jerusalem. And Luke says that it was whilst Jesus was praying that heaven opened and the Spirit of God descended, bestowing on him the blessing of his heavenly Father and thus the Messiah's right to judge and to forgive sins. We are told that immediately after his Baptism Jesus spent a long and testing time in the wilderness when perhaps, as he did on the cross, he felt abandoned by his Father. He would have needed to hold on in prayer to his experience of affirmation and blessing when he was tempted to doubt it. When we feel alone and lost in the wilderness, we too need to hold on prayerfully to the times when we have been affirmed and blessed. We are also called to affirm the good news to those struggling with their faith, and to all who judge themselves harshly. Because, in Jesus, we see abundant love and forgiveness, and the promise that we are indeed precious in his sight.
