FOCUS ON... HOLY WEEK

The traditional observance of Holy Week begins on Palm Sunday for which the Liturgy of the Church comprises both a commemoration of our Lord's triumphant entry into Jerusalem for what was to be the final week of his earthly life, and a reflection on the Gospel narratives of the culmination of Jesus' public ministry, the Passion of the Christ. In many places, there is a custom of reading or singing the words of one of the Gospel Passion narratives by way of three (or, perhaps, more) voices. As Holy Week unfolds, we ponder the deep mysteries of our faith, and we reflect on the mystical connection between love and suffering, and the divine promise that our God is with us in all things. On Maundy Thursday, we commemorate the Last Supper when Jesus first instituted the sacrament of Holy Communion and when he washed the feet of his disciples as a practical demonstration of his great commandment, "love one another as I have loved you". And, metaphorically speaking, we are taken in prayer to the garden of remembrance to watch and wait with our Lord on the eve of his crucifixion. On Good Friday, we gaze into the deep abyss of sorrow and sadness as we reflect on the astonishing events of our salvation wrought through our Lord's Passion and Saving Death on the Cross. On Holy Saturday, we contemplate Christ resting in the tomb, and so we watch and wait once more as we look for the Good News of the Resurrection and as we await the arrival of the joy and glory of Easter. And on Easter Day itself, we join with angels and archangels, and with the whole company of heaven, in attesting to the Good News of the Resurrection. Together, then, with the Church Militant and the Church Triumphant, we share in the great and joyful proclamation of Easter: "Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed. Alleluia!"

PRAYER CHAIN PRAYER

(This Sunday Service's Intercessions Led by MARK ROBERTS)

Jesus Christ, we come before you with thanksgiving as we celebrate Palm Sunday. It's the day we commemorate your entry into Jerusalem on a mission to pay for our sins and to give us eternal life. You knew the anguish awaiting you and you still proceeded so that your father's will would be fulfilled. Your love and obedience saved us, and now we are the children of God.

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us evermore. Amen.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER FOR PALM SUNDAY

Lord Jesus Christ, you humbled yourself in taking the form of a servant, and in obedience died on the cross for our salvation: give us the mind to follow you and to proclaim you as Lord and King, to the glory of God the Father, Amen.
